INTRODUCTION: PROGRESSED CHART

Your Personality Profile is revealed by the imprints of the planets in your NATAL Chart. The NATAL REPORT is a projection of "Personality Potential" and can be compared to a "Blueprint" of a building that is being planned for construction. At different stages of development while the building is being built, certain additions, deletions and/or other changes may become desirable (or even necessary) and the original blueprint may be modified to accommodate those changes. And so it is with your personality as indicated by your NATAL Chart. During the "building" of your life, your personality is being developed, and the imprints of the personality blueprint are being modified and/or changed, both by your own choices and by circumstances beyond your control.

The progression of the planets as they continue their respective orbits into different signs and houses, and the aspects they form, are beyond our control. But we DO have some control over how we handle these new influences, and how we let them affect our personality. In order to deal with these influences, it certainly would help for us to know WHAT these influences are, and WHEN we will have to deal with them. The PROGRESSED REPORT provides that information: the WHAT, the WHEN, and (in some reports) the HOW.

Now, for the first time, we have a Progressed Report that not only tells us WHAT, WHEN, and HOW--it also tells us HOW LONG! It locates the signs, the aspects, and the house positions for each of the planets for any given year of your life and tells you how long they will remain in those positions. With each of the interpretations for these progressed planetary positions, we include a brief synopsis of the influences and imprints of its position in your Natal Chart for your comparison.

Many techniques for following the development of man from birth through life have been devised and studied by Astrologers since about the second or third century BC. The technique used in this Report is called "Secondary Progressions". This system uses the "Day for a Year" process which appears to have been practiced since Ptolemy and Copernicus, and was supported by the German mathematician Johannes Kepler (1571-1630). The system is implemented by choosing a specific birthday. We then count a day for each year of your life, and cast a chart for the "progressed birthday".

The Progressed chart is the first chart used in Predictive Astrology, for it provides a good preview and overview of what you can expect in the coming year. We feel that the Progressed chart provides the first step toward using Astrology for a better and more fully informed way of living life -- AS IT UNFOLDS.

When combined with information obtained from a "FORECAST REPORT", OR "TRANSIT REPORT", which interprets the aspects of the transiting planets (where the planets actually WILL be at any given time), we can get an extremely comprehensive body of predictive information for any "progressed year"--and beyond. Check with your personal Astrologer for information concerning these Reports.

YOUR PROGRESSED ASCENDANT

Like the Sun-sign, progressing the chart will change the sign on the cusp of the first house, your Ascendant. It will also bring influences of the new sign into play upon the personality in changing, modifying, and "blending" experiences. Each time a new sign "rises" on the first house, you may feel a little disoriented, especially during the first year or two. This is because different methods, or "styles" of operating in interpersonal and business transactions can vary considerably under the influence of different Rising signs. Since the Ascendant represents the face (the "Mask") we show the world, others may begin to see us in a different light before we become aware of any changes in ourselves.

Unlike the Sun's thirty-year cycle, the change cycles of the Ascendant may not be as predictable as the Sun, since the houses may have more, or less, than thirty degrees. Casting the chart for the place of residence instead of the birthplace can also affect the degree of the Ascendant. The exact time of changes from the birth chart Ascendant and from the progressed Rising-signs can be difficult to trace when changes of residence are extreme.

The Rising sign in the Progressed chart determines the signs on the houses, just as it does in the Natal chart. Each time the Ascendant changes, the sign on the cusps of the other eleven houses may change, also. The interpretations of the signs on the houses will give some clues regarding the affairs of each house during the year for which the Progressed chart is cast. These signs on the cusps may not change very much from year to year unless you move your place of residence a significant distance from one geographic location to another.

Your Progressed Ascendant is now at twenty-four degrees of the sign, Gemini. The following interpretations are for the current year and place of residence.

PROGRESSED GEMINI RISING WITH NATAL ASCENDANT IN TAURUS--People with Taurus rising in their NATAL chart feel a close connection to the earth. One of their deepest desires may be to own a piece of land, be it large or small. Others often see you as a rock of strength, solid, reliable and dependable. In fact, you are amazingly consistent, for you do possess great powers of endurance. You don't like to make changes or adjustments in your regular routine. You tend to do things deliberately and methodically, and you usually do not do the unexpected. Though you have a gentle, soft appearance, others see you as enormously strong-willed and stubborn. You go at your own pace and refuse to be rushed or pushed into anything before you feel sure about it. You can be coaxed and persuaded by charm, beauty, love, or affection--but never forced.

With Gemini Rising in the PROGRESSED Chart you can be entertaining for hours because you cannot stand to be bored. You are a fascinating conversationalist, as words and ideas are your specialty. With Gemini Rising in the Progressed Chart, you could also exhibit the duality of the human condition. Each person is body and soul, and the tug of both is heavy. Drudgery or routine can squelch your spirit more than anything else during this progression. You need to be valued and appreciated, but you may shun obligation. Eventually however, this very behavior will lead you to your highest expression. When you don't feel safe with a situation now, you can remove yourself without ever leaving the scene. Relationships can be exciting during this life cycle, and you may pursue more than one. If you decide to shut someone out, your warmth can disappear as if behind a cloud, and the chill that is left can be very penetrating. Part of your appeal may be that people just never know exactly where they stand with you. You can out-talk, out-think, out-smart, and out-maneuver them all the time. You will respect them if they CAN keep up with you, but you will never like it if they should get ahead of you.

PROGRESSED GEMINI ON 2ND HOUSE--Mercury is the ruler of Gemini and when the sign is progressed to the second house of money and worth, material things are likely to be available and important. You will think about finances and material resources and will utilize the thinking and communicating processes to obtain them. There could be more than one source, and your possessions would tend to be artistic and aesthetic during this time.

PROGRESSED CANCER ON 3RD HOUSE--When this emotional sign with the Moon ruler is progressed to the cusp of the third house of communications, thinking mind, travel, and writing, you are likely to travel in connection with business and financial affairs. You can express yourself on an emotional level with understanding of how the recipient feels about your communications. This would serve you well if you should try your hand at writing. Your intuitions are well tuned during this period, but it is difficult for you to think unemotionally, thus sometimes making objectivity a problem.

PROGRESSED LEO ON 4TH HOUSE--The Sun rules Leo and, on the fourth house of domesticity and the home in the Progressed Chart, it can make the home a place for you to "shine". You may even begin a business in your home during this time. Your home may be a showplace now where you can express your creativity and status, and you can express your power most comfortably through home and family. You probably love to entertain, and your guests are treated with warmth and love.

PROGRESSED VIRGO ON 5TH HOUSE--Mercury, the planet of intellect, rules Virgo, sign of orderliness and organization. When progressed to the fifth house of romance and creative expression, they encourage careful, analytical thinking with close attention to detail. You are likely to be a perfectionist in social affairs and overly critical in affairs of the heart during this time. You want everything (and everyone) in its proper place. Loved ones could become ill at ease with your scrupulous organizational tendencies.

PROGRESSED LIBRA ON 6TH HOUSE--Libra's ruler is Venus and when the planet of talent, aesthetics, and the good things of life, combined with the sign of fair play and ambition are progressed to the cusp of the sixth house of work, service, and health, it is a very strong combination for achievement of goals. Health is likely to be good, work will be original and consistent, and there is a real concern for others during this time. However, there is risk of burnout for yourself and you may tend to expect too much effort from others.

PROGRESSED SAGITTARIUS ON 7TH HOUSE--Jupiter, planet of expansion and "good fortune", rules Sagittarius, the sign of optimism and ideals. When progressed to the seventh house of marriage and partnerships, the results can be mutually rewarding. The marriage partnership can become a business partnership, and either or both are likely to include financial reward.

PROGRESSED SAGITTARIUS ON 8TH HOUSE--The eighth house deals with primal instincts, death, and others' resources. Sagittarius is ruled by Jupiter, and brings expansion, idealism and higher mind to these areas. When Sagittarius is on the eighth house in the Progressed Chart, you could profit through an inheritance or some other unplanned or unusual windfall. Your partner is also likely to be financially stable during this time. On the other side of the coin, goals could be set too high and there could be a tendency to overspend or over-expand. Loss of an older friend or family member could cause you to begin thinking about death in a more personal way now.

PROGRESSED CAPRICORN ON 9TH HOUSE--Capricorn, with Saturn ruling, progressed to the ninth house of the higher mind, religion, philosophy, etc., encourages conservatism in these matters. Philosophical outlook can be restricted by materialism, and the most comfortable way of expressing humanitarian instincts could be through your profession. You may want to avoid the limelight as much as possible during this time, and attune the higher mind to the study of philosophy in search for your own spiritual self.

PROGRESSED AQUARIUS ON 10TH HOUSE--When Aquarius, ruled by Uranus, is progressed to the tenth house of career, profession, honor, and esteem, there is a mixture of the unusual and the stable--or a fluctuation between the two. You are likely to bring unusual insights into your work, which is most likely to be performed within a large organization, corporation, or structured institution. This favors the human services careers--nurses, counselors, social workers, etc. This progression could also indicate business changes through technical advances, such as computers.

PROGRESSED PISCES ON 11TH HOUSE--Pisces on the eleventh house of friends, goals, and love received, is ruled by Neptune, planet of vision or mystery. In the Progressed chart, this could indicate new and unusual friendships. You are able to establish empathy and insight with friends and groups in which you become involved. You could become rather indiscriminate in friendships, however, resulting in the risk of sometimes getting hurt or disappointed. It is not a time to mix business with friendship, whatever the temptation, for it could have negative results. Always use sound business practices, especially with good friends.

PROGRESSED ARIES ON 12TH HOUSE--Mars is ruler of Aries, and this combination of action and impulsiveness progressed to the twelfth house of limitations, hidden meanings and the subconscious could be interesting to say the least! You could secretly initiate activities with much hidden support. You are decisive and courageous, but need to curb impulsive actions. There could be strong subconscious sexual energies and aggressiveness now, and the key is to learn to release them in healthy, acceptable ways.

PROGRESSED SUN IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

The Sun moves forward (counter-clockwise) in the Progressed chart from its Natal position at the approximate rate of one degree for each year of life. This means that the Sun will progress into a different sign by, or before, age thirty. Remember that these Natal Sun-sign influences are with us all our lives in the form of birth imprints. In the Progressed chart, the new Sun-sign will influence, enhance, modify, and/or blend with those in the Natal chart--and so with any subsequent progressed Sun-signs. The influences may be most recognizable during the first year for which a Progressed chart has been cast after the Sun has moved into the next sign. Sometimes there can be events or situations which trigger significant life changes (relocation, graduation, job change, marriage, divorce, new home, etc.). Some of these could vividly high-light the influences of the Sun entering into a different sign.

As you read this report, look back over your life and try to remember if there were any events that could have changed your directions or goals when the Sun entered a new sign. You can count back to 00 degrees from the Sun-Sign degree of this chart to find the year, letting each degree count as one year. Allow about three years on either side of that actual date.

At the end of the thirty years that each new Sun-sign remains in the Progressed charts, the personality will have somewhat absorbed and assimilated the influences of all of these Sun-sign positions--and so with the new progressions to come. As in all Astrology, you have, and have had, free will to make choices. Those choices can be very significant in determining how much effect the Progressed Sun positions have in modifying your Personality Profile. Transiting planetary aspects to the Sun can also help you anticipate new influences and enhance the sense of timing.

Hopefully, you will be able to make better life choices based upon an expanded base of information through astrology.

Your Progressed Sun is now in the thirteenth year of a 30-year cycle in the sign, Scorpio. You have about 18 years left in this life-cycle.

PROGRESSED SUN IN SCORPIO WITH NATAL SUN IN LIBRA--Harmony and balance are the keynotes with your NATAL Sun in Libra. You instinctively understand the need to accommodate the interests and desires of others, and you are always fair and willing to meet the other person half way. Tactful, diplomatic and socially aware, you do all you can to avoid conflict and discord. You express a spirit of cooperation and compromise, and often achieve your goals through charm and discretion which would have been impossible to accomplish by a more direct, forceful approach. Material things are not as important to you as is the human condition, but you are likely to accumulate things material, nevertheless. You also have a strong need for beautiful, harmonious surroundings and a natural sense of artistic style. Everything must be aesthetically pleasing and appropriate in your home and workplace. Working with people as a counselor, advisor, consultant, negotiator, or in an artistic field such as design or photography would be fulfilling for you. You are probably quick to initiate new projects or ideas, but usually seek the cooperation of others rather than continue alone. You have a special need for companionship in order to be fulfilled, yet you need to maintain your own individuality within the framework of a relationship. Marriage and partnerships could be a primary concern.

When the Sun moves into the sign Scorpio in your PROGRESSED chart it can add considerable power and energy to the NATAL Libra influences you have become accustomed to. Justice and fair play could become less dominant in your personality, and you will be much stronger in the ability to function without the cooperation of others. These progressed influences will begin to affect your basic Personality Profile almost immediately. Your power, will, and intense emotional desires will be enhanced. Your life is likely to be a constant struggle to conquer desire through creative use of the will. In general, you try to improve the status quo. Unlike while the Sun was in Libra, there will be tremendous emotional force behind your romantic involvements. If allowed to get out of control, this could lead to possessiveness, jealousy, and violence. In the Progressed chart, the emphasis is likely to be on spiritual influences and modification of the personality. You cannot live at a superficial level, and whatever you become involved with is generally of serious consequence. You still have a high sense of justice, as was the case when your Sun was in Libra. Although you may despise weakness in yourself and don't like to see it in others, you can be compassionate to the point of over-extending yourself in order to help someone else. You have tremendous staying power and will see things through to the bitter end. You are not often the diplomat, but can be blunt in expressing your feelings and ideas. Hang on to some of the Libra warmth and sense of community so that you can soften some the aggressiveness and selfish power of the Scorpio Sun.

PROGRESSED SUN IN 1ST HOUSE--The Sun in the houses represents the departments of life most strongly affected by individual will and power potential. In your first house it gives you a strong will, abundant vitality, and great self-awareness. This position bestows great initiative and powers of leadership. The Sun "passes through" each house one time each year. Its influence "illuminates" and brings into focus the affairs of the house in which it dwells (or is passing through). In the PROGRESSED Chart, we fix that focus on the house occupied by the Sun on your birthday anniversary for the year the chart is cast. You are not easily swayed by the opinions of others, but have a strong determination to choose your own course in life. You have abundant energy and strong recuperative powers during this time. Your energy goes with ambition for success, and you will work hard and long to achieve your goals. You need to feel important, so you need to be aware that now you could also have excessive pride, egotism, compulsiveness, false ambition, and a desire to rule others. These tendencies if not controlled could alienate some people who are important in your life.

PROGRESSED MOON IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

The close proximity of the Moon to the earth and its rotation around the earth causes it to pass between the earth and each sign of the Zodiac quite rapidly. It averages about thirteen degrees per day--a little less than three days per sign. Under the day-for-a-year progression system, it will take approximately thirty months, two-and-a-half years, for it to complete each life-cycle of the Moon.

The Moon is the only "planet" that could show up more than once in a Progressed chart in the same sign in which it was found in the Natal chart. Although these natal influences "imprint" our personalities and are with us throughout our lifetime, when the Moon appears in the same sign in the Progressed chart, it can give us an opportunity to modify even those natal imprints to some extent. In the delineations for the Progressed Moon-signs, we will include the Natal Moon-sign interpretations.

In mythology the Moon is always female--as the Sun is always male. In most ancient cults and religions, the Moon represents the female force which reflects the male force of the Sun. There were many ancient Lunar holidays and festivals. In modern religion, the date for the Easter holiday is still determined by the Moon's orbit.

In astrology, "she" dispenses her influences indiscriminately upon male and female alike, though each sex is likely to respond to the influences in somewhat different ways. The Moon-sign influences in the Progressed chart will affect the emotional side of your personality as it was imprinted by the sign the Moon was in at birth and modified by subsequent progressed Moon-sign influences. The intensity of the changes can range from deeply sub-conscious to dramatically emotional.

Your Progressed Moon is now at 15 degrees of an approximate two-and-a-half-year life cycle in the sign, Aquarius. You should have, roughly, 16 months left until it moves into the next Moon-sign cycle.

PROGRESSED MOON IN AQUARIUS WITH NATAL MOON IN VIRGO--In NATAL Virgo, the Moon indicates an exacting, hardworking, practical nature. You are particular about food and diet, and concerned about health. You have a great regard for neatness and cleanliness in personal hygiene and housekeeping as well. You are more likely to express your love by doing things for people rather than by saying it in words. Intimate relationships may prove difficult and hard to come by for your expectations will be pretty high, and it is difficult for you to express your feelings. Relationships are important for your feelings of well-being, and losing one can cause painful depression. Although ambition may not be extremely high, you can do about anything you would choose to do in the way of profession or vocation. Your technical skills are easily developed, and the caring disposition for others could open doors in the helping professions. Your skills will always be supplemented and influenced by emotional undertones. You may appear shy, for you like to work behind the scenes. You pay attention to details and have a sincere desire to serve. You could risk being blinded to the overall picture by your obsession with details, so you need to look beyond the present picky activities and avoid excessive preoccupation with them. Watch out for a critical attitude of others whose style of doing things may differ from your own.

When the Moon moves into Aquarius in the PROGRESSED Chart, it gives you a capacity to sympathize with the needs of humanity. You will probably have flashes of intuitive knowledge about individuals. You seek freedom for your own emotional expression, and will expect the freedom to come and go as you please within your domestic situation. This could put strain on relationships. You may have unusual family relationships, but your home is likely to be a gathering place for friends and group activities during this time. You are idealistic, with a "One World" concept, and you have a constant concern for the underdog. You may be seen as a free spirit during this life cycle, but your serious side will project its influences effectively when you are sufficiently motivated and inspired. You will stick to a worthwhile cause and will find sources of ingenuity to further its consummation. You are ambitious, and are willing to utilize many resources and much inventiveness in order to succeed. The greater the scope of the project, the better you will like it. You need to beware of any irrational need for freedom at all costs, and fear of personal emotional involvements because they might pose a threat to your personal freedom. You could also have a tendency to emotional perversity and stubbornness.

PROGRESSED MOON IN 1ST HOUSE--The Moon will pass through all the houses of the Natal Chart approximately every twenty-eight days, making its daily and hourly influences very fleeting. Each time it crosses the Ascendant in the Progressed Chart however, there will be an enormous shift from life expressions to self-awareness. The influences require the emotional stabilization of this shift and getting on with the development of the persona. This first-house period is a time for the clearest personality emphasis in development, each and every time the Moon progresses past the Ascendant. You could be extremely concerned about yourself, and objectivity can be difficult. You feel a great need to "belong" and to relate to friends and loved ones. You are likely to put unrealistic social expectations upon yourself during this time, feeling guilty if you cannot keep within the rhythms and activities of people you want to relate to. You can be emotionally very "giving", but also very "taking". Subsequent progressions may trigger significant personality enhancements or personality changes.

PROGRESSED SUN-MOON SIGN COMBINATION

As in the Natal Chart, the blend of the Progressed Sun-Moon influences are extremely significant toward understanding the modification of the personality from that which was indicated by the Natal Chart. We urge you to review the interpretation in your Natal Chart. The interpretation of the Progressed Sun-Moon blend is printed next. Study it carefully, in addition to the delineations of Sun in Sign, Sun in House, Moon in Sign, and Moon in House. We suggest that you compare them also with the same interpretations in your Natal Chart.

PROGRESSED: SCORPIO SUN AND AQUARIUS MOON--These are two Fixed signs: Scorpio in water, Aquarius in air. They are in square aspect. Humanitarianism can soften the vain pride of the Scorpio. Applause may be needed, but only when the Self knows that a service has been provided. When this combination is found in your Progressed chart, you are independent and clever but with a deep intuition. You are decisive and can act on your instincts, but you need to watch out for an attitude of tough intolerance. You are highly idealistic and ambitious during this life cycle, and you are likely to set uniquely visionary goals. You will have deep concerns about human suffering and combat, and you will express your emotionalism through deeds accomplished. You are likely to find your place in the world and to hold on to a worthy goal with all your strength. This progression could help your "Eagle" soar above the "Serpent" in the sign Scorpio.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Mercury in the signs gives clues to the kinds of concerns that occupy your mind and reveals your psychological approach to making decisions and conveying your ideas to others. Mercury influences the kind of communications you have with other people throughout the year: those received as well as those you send. It indicates shifts in mental focus and intellectual attention as they are impacted by the influences of the Progressed sign. It can also indicate travel, such as short trips which don't upset the daily routine too much. You can usually count on not being bored by Mercury influences, and the daily routine is more likely to be intensified rather than subdued. On another level, Mercury IS the every day routine, indicating everything we are so accustomed to that we don't even notice it. On still another level, it may indicate a time when you should just sit and think.

Mercury takes a little less than thirty years to progress through the thirty degrees of each sign, so we may have a little "stretch" or a little "overlap" of influences when using the day-for-a-year progression system. We have tried to adjust the degree of Mercury in its current Progressed sign to give you some rough idea of how long it will be until it enters the next Progressed sign.

Your Progressed Mercury is now in the 25th degree of an approximate thirty-year life-cycle in the sign, Libra. You could have, roughly, 06 years left in this cycle.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN LIBRA WITH NATAL MERCURY IN LIBRA--When a planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED Charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

Mercury in Libra in the NATAL Chart, imprints you with a mind that is primarily concerned with psychology and the well-being of mankind. You are likely to want to work with others, and could seek your career in fields such as philosophy, astrology, public relations, sociology, theology, and law. You will seek harmony and justice. You like to associate with others who have refined minds, good manners, and honest reputations. One of your greatest assets is your ability to see both sides of an issue, and to negotiate and bring about compromise and reconciliation. You are tactful and reasonable with considerable social finesse, and you work well with people in business as well as in personal relationships. You are likely to begin to develop some long-term personal relationships during this life cycle. You are objective and somewhat detached from emotional bias. You insist upon fairness, and you seek to bring harmony or at least peaceful coexistence between people. Your skill at diplomacy is an asset in any business or social situation. You also have fine aesthetic sensitivities and could work in an artistic or cultural environment. However you do need to moderate your intellectual idealism and learn to accept that life, people, and the world we live in is not always fair and just.

PROGRESSED MERCURY IN 1ST HOUSE--Mercury in the houses deals with the practical affairs that occupy your mind, and shows what areas of activity will be influenced by your thoughts and communications. When it is in the first house of the Progressed Chart, it provides you with an inquiring, intellectual outlook on life. Very little that happens in your environment escapes you. Your actions and self-expression are based on logic and reasoning, and you will have better than average intelligence during this time. You will like to talk and write because of the natural desire to express yourself. You are likely to have great mental initiative and willpower, and to be intellectually competitive. Watch your ego and make allowances for the ordinary people.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Venus in the signs indicates how you express your emotions in personal relationships. It also influences your attitudes toward money, personal possessions, creature comforts, and social and aesthetic values. Venus is a social planet, usually bringing people together for parties and good times. It is also the planet of LOVE, and its impressions combined with the influences of the signs can tell you quite a bit about your experiences in love and romance. It is also the planet of creativity: of artistic talent and entertainment. The influences of the different signs of the Zodiac can help to dictate the forms of expression indicated to display these talents.

The annual orbit of Venus is usually only five or six days away from the orbiting time of the Sun, so it fits the day-for-a-year progression system quite well. Though there may be a very little stretch or overlap, we are pretty safe in estimating a degree of progression per year for Venus, as with the Sun.

Your Progressed Venus is now in the 30th degree of an approximate thirty year life-cycle in the sign, Sagittarius. You have, roughly, the current year left in this cycle.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN SAGITTARIUS WITH NATAL VENUS IN SCORPIO--When Venus is in Scorpio in your NATAL Chart, the emotions and sexual desires can be strong and passionate, jealous and secretive, with much pride in sex and romance. You can take your romances too personally and too seriously, but you give much in emotional expression and expect much in return. Your artistic tastes are likely to turn to the dramatic and sensational. You are highly sensitive to others, and may be psychic. You will keep your personal pride and emotional dignity against all odds, sometimes appearing cold and remote. You need to watch out for tendencies to control others in close personal relationships. In love and romance, you want a deep, intense, passionate union with your loved one, and you will form very strong emotional bonds and attachments. You "marry" the person you love at a very deep emotional level, and could often be extremely possessive and jealous of any threat to that union. If you are ever betrayed, you are capable of hating with as much force and intensity as you once loved. You are not very forgiving, and your motto is more likely to get even.

When Venus moves into Sagittarius in the PROGRESSED Chart the influences will tend to make you more idealistic and spiritually oriented. In this period, you may like religious ceremony and pageantry. You like to be objective and unemotional in personal relationships, sticking to the old values as defined by tradition and most accepted religious practices. In your romantic relationships you will seek both companionship and friendship with fun-loving partners. Personal relationships can be exciting during this life cycle. You may not be very sentimental, and your love partner(s) may feel that you are a little too casual and not romantic or serious enough. You will want a spiritual and intellectual connection in all your relationships, and a partner, or partners, who will encourage and support your own aspirations and dreams. You need to refrain from pushing your more traditional beliefs and practices onto others. You need to refrain from pushing your practices on others during this progression, and to seek spiritual guidance for what is right for you.

PROGRESSED VENUS IN 1ST HOUSE--Venus in the houses gives us information about how you may express yourself socially, romantically, and artistically in the various areas of your life. In the first house of the Progressed chart, it influences you to be socially outgoing, with a pleasing manner and friendly appearance. It could bring out a striking physical beauty as well. You should generally have a happy outlook on life, and your natural ability to mix well with other people should contribute to both good business and exciting romantic opportunities during this time. Artistic talent is also indicated.

PROGRESSED MARS IN SIGN AND HOUSE POSITION

Mars is energy and action. "His" influences provide means of expression for the influences of the other planets through direct action. It can express temperament, set fire to the emotions, activate ambition, spur romance on, and sometimes set the stage for accidents. In mythology, Mars is the God of War.

It takes Mars an average of about twenty-two months to progress into a new sign, depending upon Retrograde movement, etc. Therefore it will be difficult to establish an accurate time frame for the duration of the Progressed Mars influences. We use two years as an approximation, but the length of time left in each sign cannot be very accurate. However, each time you have a Progressed chart cast, the position of Mars for that year will be accurate.

Mars is now at 09 degrees of the sign, Virgo. It takes approximately 60 years for Mars to pass through one sign in the Progressed chart. You have, roughly, 44 years left until it moves into the next Mars life-cycle.

PROGRESSED MARS IN VIRGO WITH NATAL MARS IN LEO--Mars in Leo in the NATAL Chart makes the personality feel free, fearless, independent, enterprising, honest, and very conscientious. You are capable of rising to positions of responsibility, trust, authority, and control. Your ambition is likely to take you into public service where you certainly can become a leader. You are also likely to have some musical talent. You are warm-hearted and sociable; ardent in affection, love, and pleasure, but often hasty and impulsive in love and too unrestrained in the emotions and passions.

When Mars moves into Virgo in the PROGRESSED Chart, it provides the personality with much originality in thought and an interest in scientific enterprises. During this progression, there could be difficulties in the way of career. You should plan your actions carefully and execute them systematically, going your own way quietly. You could be attracted to the healing arts during this time, and you may inquire into one of the healing professions. You are quick-witted and can be shrewd and acquisitive, but you need to be especially tactful and discriminative during this life cycle. You also need to beware of overwork, and of tendencies to be irritable, proud, and obstinate.

PROGRESSED MARS IN 1ST HOUSE--Mars in the houses indicates the departments of life in which you express your actions and desires. In the first house of the Progressed chart, we find these outgoing, aggressive impulses can provide abundant energy. You are not a bystander now--you must be involved. You are ambitious and able to work hard. Your competitive drive could make you seek recognition and public acclaim during this time. You have great stamina and energy which can enable you to accomplish much. You insist on freedom in personal action and will not tolerate interference from others now. You need to watch out for rash emotional impulsiveness and combativeness, and a tendency to get into physical fights while this progression is in effect.

PLANETARY SIGN AND HOUSE POSITIONS:

The rest of the planets take much longer to orbit through the signs and houses. Unless they were in the last few degrees of the Natal sign, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune and Pluto are probably still in the signs and houses they were in when you were born. If any of them have progressed into the next sign, the program will print the influences of the new sign as it compares to the old. It will only interpret the progressed house position. A major move in geographic location which changes the Ascendant may also change the house cusps and the signs on the houses.

PROGRESSED JUPITER IN LIBRA WITH NATAL JUPITER IN LIBRA--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long-term.

Jupiter in the signs influences your ethical, religious, and philosophic standards and beliefs, and how you may express those interests. In the sign Libra in the NATAL Chart, Jupiter imprints the personality with a strong concern for justice and with high moral principles in marriage, partnership, and close personal relationships. You are likely to look for a partner whose views in these areas correspond with yours. You will feel a need for a solid domestic base to provide a foundation for the freedom you need to express your own beliefs and to influence improvements in the social order. You may need to watch for a tendency to make moral judgments and decisions for others. You may also see a tendency of others to show jealousy toward you, especially if you get involved in too many personal relationships at once.

PROGRESSED JUPITER IN 1ST HOUSE--Jupiter in the houses indicates the departments of life and the types of activity through which you express your religious, philosophic, and educational ideas. In the first house of the PROGRESSED Chart, it brings you an optimistic, sociable disposition. You can be honest, trustworthy, friendly and benevolent during this time. You tend to focus on the brighter side of life, and are likely to be popular and well liked. You are likely to pursue studies in social, religious, and/or educational fields, and will have the capacity for leadership. You may develop very strong moral and religious convictions, and could become a spiritual leader. You need to watch out for self-indulgence and self-importance, and try not to promise more than you can deliver.

PROGRESSED SATURN IN LIBRA WITH NATAL SATURN IN LIBRA--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long-term.

Saturn in the signs indicates the areas in which you must accept responsibility and the ways in which you must practice discipline and develop maturity. In the sign Libra in the NATAL Chart, Saturn will imprint the personality with a desire for justice and fair play. The responsibilities focus on relationships and the laws of mutual commitment. You are attractive, well-groomed, and always pay attention to "proper" dress. You can be rigid in principles, but independent and resourceful. You have a need to know, which inspires investigations into the occult. You should use your psychic abilities in the pursuit of knowledge. You need to learn to be tolerant of mere mortals, and curb the tendencies to harbor resentments. Avoid abuse of alcohol and other drugs.

PROGRESSED SATURN IN 1ST HOUSE--Saturn in the houses indicates the areas of life in which we must learn to act with discipline and to express practical ambition through maturity. In the first house of the Progressed Chart, it can enhance a dignified personal manner, which could seem cold and unfriendly. However, it can increase loyalty to friends, and reveal the need for you to develop a sense of humor and learn how to have fun. You will feel more serious-minded and hard-working, and that you must shoulder great responsibilities. With proper discipline now, these attributes will help you to achieve much. You will need to practice cooperation with others and cultivate love, however, before you can achieve personal fulfillment and happiness.

PROGRESSED URANUS IN SCORPIO WITH NATAL URANUS IN SCORPIO--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

Uranus in the signs indicates ways in which you express your urge for freedom and individuality, and how you establish your link with the Universal Mind. In Scorpio in the NATAL Chart, Uranus imprints the personality with strong powers of concentration, persistence, and determination. You can be highly sex-oriented, and one of the lessons to be learned here is the proper place for sex in your life. You have extremely powerful emotions, and need to exercise this power carefully lest you injure others around you and in your life. You have an inventive nature and a love for things mechanical, and you are likely to succeed in anything you attempt--even against great odds. You need to watch out for impulsive behavior and try to consider the feelings of others.

PROGRESSED URANUS IN 1ST HOUSE--Uranus in the houses indicates the type of activity through which you express your urge toward originality and freedom. Also through what circumstances sudden, unusual and exciting events may occur. Its progression into the first house indicates that old limitations you have placed upon yourself or accepted from others are no longer acceptable. You will feel that you need to change them, even if you have to break away from many of the things that have been important to you in the past. This could apply to a relationship, job, or any other area of obligation in your life. This is primarily a drive for freedom to allow you to set new goals, to grow and change, and to open yourself up for new experiences.

PROGRESSED NEPTUNE IN SAGITTARIUS WITH NATAL NEPTUNE IN SAGITTARIUS--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

LEFT SAGITTARIUS IN 1984-NEXT POSSIBLE IN YEAR 2147--Neptune's influences are mostly generational. It indicates a time when governments will fail in chaos, and both material and corporate structures will crumble. It indicates the kind of creative and imaginative cultural expressions you experience. In Sagittarius in the NATAL Chart the emphasis is on positive expression of higher religious and spiritual values. You will search for more personal contact with the God of your understanding through your inner being, probably through forms of meditation. You could be inspired to attempt the impossible to fulfill some of your idealistic goals.

PROGRESSED NEPTUNE IN 1ST HOUSE--Neptune in the houses indicates how you express your mystical potential, and may reveal some of the karma produced by your past actions. In the first house of the Progressed Chart, it enhances your sensitive, intuitive awareness of self and environment. You may express yourself through music and art as a promoter or participant (or both). You may be able to provide positive applications of clairvoyance now, and possibly of spiritual healing. You are likely to be closely in tune with psychic forces. Unfortunately, they are not all positive, and you may be extremely sensitive to the others, too. Avoid alcohol and drugs, since they enhance your sensitivity to negative forces. Also, practice discipline so that you live in the real world. Avoid drifting and dwelling too much in a fantasy world during this progression.

PROGRESSED PLUTO IN LIBRA WITH NATAL PLUTO IN LIBRA--When the planet is in the same sign in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED charts the influences are the same, but are just more long term.

Influences of Pluto in the signs is also more historical and generational than personal. Individual influences are likely to produce permanent change. In the sign Libra in the NATAL Chart, the personal imprints on the personality are toward the conscious responsibilities for fellow men through justice, human relations, social expression and psychology. You will constantly be seeking balance in your life, as well as justice and fair play.

Influences of Pluto in the signs is also more historical and generational than personal. Individual influences are likely to produce permanent change. In the sign Libra in both the NATAL and PROGRESSED Charts, the personal imprints on the personality are toward the conscious responsibilities for fellow men through justice, human relations, social expression and psychology. You will constantly be seeking balance in your life, as well as justice and fair play. If Pluto is in this position in your Progressed chart, these influences will be with you for the rest of your life.

PROGRESSED PLUTO IN 1ST HOUSE--The house position of Pluto shows in which departments of life you need to exercise conscious creative willpower to regenerate yourself and your surroundings. In the first house of the Progressed chart, it enhances an intense self-awareness and the potential for developing a powerful will. You may have considerable initiative, but find it difficult to conform to traditional conduct and to cooperate with others, causing you to seek out an unusual kind of career. You need to regenerate yourself through a deep psychic understanding of life and consciousness, therefore you will need to practice positive prayer and meditation techniques. You are likely to have a highly developed sense of personal power and will during this progression, which you need to discipline in order to get along with other mere mortals.

PROGRESSED PLANETARY ASPECTS:

Following are the interpretations of the Planetary Aspects of the Progressed planets to each other. As in the Natal chart we use only the major aspects: Conjunction, Opposition, Square, Trine, and Sextile. These interpretations may be a little different from the Natal Chart interps in describing the influences, as they are presented from the same point of view as transiting planetary aspects.

Rather than natal imprints, these aspects represent influences you have to deal with during the time of this Progressed chart. Some of the slower moving planets with aspects in the Natal Chart may still be in orb. However the program allows less than one degree of orb, so that the influences will be strongly focused on the year for which the Progressed Report is prepared. Because of this narrow focus and the tight orb, there are not likely to be very many aspects (if any) in this Report.

The following progressed Moon to progressed planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 2 months in the future, that is about 2 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE SATURN--This aspect in the Progressed Chart gives you patience and reserve strength. You can keep your emotions under control in ways that help you see the true reality of life. You will face your feelings, and may be inclined to spend time by yourself just to evaluate your own development. Things past and familiar will be in your consciousness now, and you will feel secure with whatever has supported you in the past.

The following progressed Moon to progressed planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 8 months in the future, that is about 8 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE MERCURY--This aspect between the planet of emotions and the planet of intellect in the Progressed Chart can give you a good memory and a good working relationship between your conscious and your subconscious mind. It can enhance your conversational skills when in the Progressed Chart, and you are likely to be more interested in whomever you are communicating with. You can emotionally and logically understand and communicate the ordinary, daily life affairs, and probably have better business sense during this period than ever before. This is a rare supportive aspect.

PROGRESSED MOON SEXTILE NEPTUNE--This aspect provides strong psychic potentials. When it is in your Progressed Chart, you are likely to be intuitively in tune with the occult, and transcendental communications will come easily to you. Your memory of the distant and karmic past is extensive, and you may learn to bring it up to your present consciousness at will. Your intuition will help you in decision making during this time, especially where financial matters are concerned. You will be much in tune with family matters and needs. Your imagination is expansive, and you are likely to become involved with group(s) in practicing positive occult activities.

The following progressed Moon to progressed planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about a year in the future, that is about a year after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE URANUS--This square indicates times of intense self-awareness. In the Progressed Chart it could bring with it the experience of personal reform, with idiosyncrasies set aside. It stimulates the personality's feelings for individuality. However, with the square, independence tends to be achieved only through separation, upset, or overturn of the status quo. Before such action, costs should be carefully considered.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE JUPITER--A sextile or trine of the Moon to Jupiter is an extremely favorable aspect. Opportunities may abound with this aspect in the Progressed Chart. Legal arrangements will favor your decisions, and you should take advantage of any investment opportunities which may arise. There can be a strengthening of your ethical position through the law and/or religion, and from the psychic area during this time. Plain old LUCK is in force.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE PLUTO--This aspect intensifies the feelings and emotions, while stimulating your sensitivity at the same time. While it is in your Progressed Chart, you will feel everything more deeply, and will not take those feelings lightly. You will also be sensitive to the feelings of others, and will seek out intimate understanding with them. Sexual relations could be more powerful and fulfilling. People you meet at this time are likely to also show some of this intensity. Nothing you do now will be shallow, and most efforts can provide rich and rewarding experiences from which you can learn more about your feelings.

PROGRESSED MOON SEXTILE VENUS--This aspect in the Progressed Chart bestows an affectionate nature, an intelligent awareness, and a charm which makes you popular with the opposite sex and with people in general. It is usually favorable to marriage and domestic life. You are likely to have close ties with your family during this time, especially with brothers and sisters. Your imagination is lively and productive, especially in artistic and domestic applied areas. Expression in these areas can be extremely emotionally fulfilling now.

PROGRESSED MERCURY CONJUNCT PLUTO--This aspect combines strong willpower with great resourcefulness and helps you get to the bottom of what you wish to understand. While it is in the Progressed Chart, you are able to see through others and to ferret out secrets. You are likely to see things as they really are and to accept truth even when it is uncomfortable. During this progression, you could have a definite interest in the occult, with the wish to study and communicate these forces. Watch out for tendencies to want to remake others' thoughts and mental perceptions.

PROGRESSED JUPITER SQUARE THE NORTH NODE--This aspect in the Progressed Chart can cause conflict and difficulty in adjusting to social institutions. Your religious, educational, and social attitudes are not likely to be in harmony with the trends and the culture in which you find yourself during this time.

PROGRESSED NEPTUNE OPPOSITE THE ASCENDANT--This aspect in the Progressed Chart can produce some confusion in your self-expression and social relationships. You could be both deceptive and/or deceived in marriage and partnership relationships, with some confusion in the area of sexual identity. The lesson here is acceptance. Avoid tendencies to dwell in your own dream world. Growth will be in the real world where you develop trust with others.

PROGRESSED TO NATAL ASPECTS

The Natal Chart is always significant in our lives, and it must be taken into consideration when interpreting any of the advanced charting efforts. The Progressed chart has moved the planets into new positions, sometimes forming new aspects with the fixed positions of your natal planets. Some of the aspects in the Natal chart of the slower moving (outer) planets may still be in aspect orb in the Progressed Chart. These aspects, and any new ones formed, will help to bridge the gap between the Natal and Progressed Charts. Because the program allows less than one degree of orb in order to focus the influences for the year the Progressed Report is prepared, there are not likely to be many planets in aspect--if any. If there are any aspects in orb, their interpretations will provide valuable information about influences you will feel during the duration of this Progressed year.

PROGRESSED MOON OPPOSITE NATAL MARS--This aspect in the Progressed Chart brings developmental tensions to the personality. Experiences may project energies into impulsive reactions. It can indicate a time of potential disruption to growth harmony from intense emotional energy. Resolutions of problems and removal of obstacles should be approached with careful planning and timing. Try to avoid impulsiveness and confrontation.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 2 months in the future, that is about 2 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE NATAL VENUS--This aspect in the Progressed Chart can bring concerns about finances and the standard of living (aesthetics) into sharp awareness. Personality and emotions are heightened, making judgments take on an emotional direction during this progression. Beware of the tendency for criticism in emotional relationships. Cultivate patience and practice serenity.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE NATAL JUPITER--A sextile or trine of the Moon to Jupiter is an extremely favorable aspect. Opportunities may abound with this aspect in the Progressed Chart. Legal arrangements will favor your decisions, and you should take advantage of any investment opportunities which may arise. There can be a strengthening of your ethical position through the law and/or religion, and from the psychic area during this time. Plain old LUCK is in force.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about 8 months in the future, that is about 8 months after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE NATAL PLUTO--This aspect intensifies the feelings and emotions, while stimulating your sensitivity at the same time. While it is in your Progressed Chart, you will feel everything more deeply, and will not take those feelings lightly. You will also be sensitive to the feelings of others, and will seek out intimate understanding with them. Sexual relations could be more powerful and fulfilling. Your intuition will help you in decision making during this time, especially where financial matters are concerned. You will be much in tune with family matters and needs. Your imagination is expansive, and you are likely to become involved with group(s) in practicing positive occult activities.

The following progressed Moon to natal planet interpretation will last about 2 months and it will occur about a year in the future, that is about a year after the date given on the cover page of this report.

PROGRESSED MOON SQUARE NATAL URANUS--This square indicates times of intense self-awareness. In the Progressed Chart it could bring with it the experience of personal reform, with idiosyncrasies set aside. It stimulates the personality's feelings for individuality. However, with the square, independence tends to be achieved only through separation, upset, or overturn of the status quo. Before such action, costs should be carefully considered.

PROGRESSED MOON TRINE NATAL MERCURY--This aspect between the planet of emotions and the planet of intellect in the Progressed Chart can give you a good memory and a good working relationship between your conscious and your subconscious mind. It can enhance your conversational skills when in the Progressed Chart, and you are likely to be more interested in whomever you are communicating with. You can emotionally and logically understand and communicate the ordinary, daily life affairs, and probably have better business sense during this period than ever before. This is a rare supportive aspect.

PROGRESSED MERCURY CONJUNCT NATAL PLUTO--This aspect combines strong willpower with great resourcefulness and helps you get to the bottom of what you wish to understand. While it is in the Progressed Chart, you are able to see through others and to ferret out secrets. You are likely to see things as they really are and to accept truth even when it is uncomfortable. During this progression, you could have a definite interest in the occult, with the wish to study and communicate these forces. Watch out for tendencies to want to remake others' thoughts and mental perceptions.

PROGRESSED VENUS SEXTILE NATAL MERCURY--This is a light aspect in the Progressed Chart, whose greatest value is putting you in touch with your feelings of love and friendship. It could be easy to tell someone you love them. Your appreciation of beauty is great and it is a good time for appreciating lovely things that have no purpose except to be what they are. You will be encouraged to use your mind for pursuing leisure activities during this progression.
