***** Chapter 1 *****

Your individuality. Your personality.
Your emotional needs. Your mentality.

To find the ideal profession, you have to know yourself first. There are activities you are suited for according to your nature, and others you are not. Your ideal occupation should favor the expression of your individuality (Sun) and your personality (Rising Sign), satisfy your emotional needs (Moon) and permit the development of your intellect (Mercury).

YOUR INDIVIDUALITY: Sun in Libra

You were born under the sign of LIBRA and your ruling planet is Venus, which endows you with great idealism, a sense of justice and refined taste.

Your Sun sign is CARDINAL and this indicates that you were born to be a leader, either in thought or action. You are never completely satisfied in a subordinate position carrying out the ideas of others, unless they are part of your aspirations. You are comfortable working independently or occupying a leadership position.

Libra is an AIR sign and this makes you curious, sociable and mentally very active. All occupations that stimulate your intellect and the possibility of communicating will be very favorable. You need variety, harmony and the exchange of ideas.

You are quiet, sophisticated, warm and patient, and seek balance and harmony in your surroundings. Because of your personal charm you easily connect with people and are likely to have a great social life. You are happier sharing your life with your loved ones than living alone. You are always willing to cooperate and help others, sometimes putting aside your own objectives.

Your sense of justice is also very strong and you do not support or participate in injustices. Although you detest aggressiveness and shady dealings, if necessary you will show your aggressive side and your inflexibility. You have good taste and an innate sense of harmony and beauty. You are concerned about personal aesthetics and harmony in your surroundings, which will cause you to create an agreeable and refined environment. You are likely to enjoy life and pleasures. Your attitude will always be congenial, open and happy.

You were born to co-operate, to persuade, to mediate, to conciliate and to balance things around you. One of your missions is to work for peace and harmony in the world, imposing justice and order with your natural diplomacy. You were born to develop your artistic and aesthetics abilities, to socialize, to teach, advise, guide, and to harmonize associations.

To evolve, your spirit needs to overcome the strong doubts that plague you when you have to make a decision. You have to learn to be direct and firm with your opinions, setting aside any complacency that could sometimes leave you a bit too quiet. You need to guard against a tendency to comfort, inertia, a great dependence on affection from certain people and the search for peace at any price. You will also have to surmount the hatred you easily accumulate within yourself, learning to forgive and forget.

YOUR PERSONALITY: Ascendant Taurus

Others see you as a quiet, agreeable, sweet and attractive person. You tend to move slowly and at your own pace. You don't like difficulties or tense and uncomfortable situations, but seek to surround yourself with people and situations that offer stability and harmony.

You are very persevering in your objectives and have a realistic vision of the material world. You want to achieve a good standard of living and are inclined to spend your money on comfort or luxuries. You are industrious, constant and loyal; your artistic ability, good taste and aesthetic sense will be exhibited in your work. You feel best in open places where you can be directly in touch with nature.

The profession you choose will have to encourage your desire to find harmony, economic stability, and possibilities for artistic or creative expression; you will have to avoid working under pressure or difficulty.

YOUR EMOTIONAL NEEDS: Moon in Virgo

Your emotions are filtered by your mind before they are expressed, which could make you cold, calculating or inhibited. You are very difficult to please and can adopt an obsessive or very criticizing attitude that doesn't allow you to freely enjoy your affections. You have a fear of failure and continually seek total safety and this leads you to restrain from demonstrating your affections and talents.

On the other hand, you like to serve and accomplish those tasks that benefit your loved ones, but often have problems understanding the feelings of others. You are analytical and think a long time before acting. You don't like to waste time and are very demanding with yourself and with others. You stand out in your job through your efficiency and your ability to concentrate and organize. You are also concerned about your health and your diet and you don't neglect personal hygiene. You are delicate and selective with your pleasures.

Subconsciously, you have a strong fear of expressing your own power. In previous lives you may have lived in poverty, disease or humility and because of this, you now have the need to find safety and protection from people around you. You are afraid of diseases and its consequences. On the other hand, you may have held positions of service, done healing and worked with patients or been a craftsman, and from thence originates your ability to see details, your need to make projects to perfection and to your requirements. You now have to seek an opening to your emotional world and to note the development and not the perfection.

The profession you choose will have to satisfy your emotional need to find security, order and cleanliness. You need to feel useful to others and want to show your ability to serve. In the long run, you have a great need for recognition of your labor, but have difficulty making it count.

YOUR MENTALITY: Mercury in Libra

You have a balanced and harmonious mind and try to express your ideas in a proper and delicate way. Because of your deep sense of justice, you are not quick to make decisions. You analyze both sides of any situation in order to avoid any mistakes or unfairness. Your indecision, on even trivial things, tends to bother you a lot and also will bother the people around you. You are very moderate in everything you do and rarely will go for an extreme situation.

Your way of communicating is soft, refined and friendly. Your voice has a soft, warm tone and you refrain from using coarse and offensive language. You get angry when arguments, violence or aggressiveness occur. If you are put in a hostile situation, you will try to escape or will hide within yourself. You have a strong sense of aesthetics which will be shown in your artistic abilities. You are very sociable and could excel in public relations, diplomacy, law or as a counselor or umpire. You have a complacent attitude toward others and most likely will postpone many of your projects, if they create a lack of harmony. You could be a bit lazy or inconstant with your studies and need some support from others to successfully achieve your educational goals.

***** Chapter 2 *******

Your abilities and your emotions, inhibitions and strengths. Hidden talents or challenges, Karma.

The location of the planets in the houses and the relationship between them can increase or decrease their power. Aspects of the Sun are related to our strength and those of the Moon affect the emotional world and are expressed on a subconscious level.

Aspects that affect your INDIVIDUALITY:

Sun in 6th house:

You are very industrious, well-organized and efficient. You will excel in your work through your ability and dedication. You like to do things well and are likely to be a perfectionist in everything. Analyzing every detail of a situation, you have the ability to see what others miss. You will have to control the tendency to criticize and to be always unsatisfied because of your love of perfection. Though you understand authority, your success is more related to work done in a subordinate position rather than independently.

Your interest in health and hygiene of the body would make you suitable for occupations in the fields of medicine, nursing and nutrition or service in general, especially if you are born under a water sign.

This position could generate a certain shyness or lack of self-confidence. Recognition of your work may be sparse, which in the long run may lead to deceptions or frustrations while you wait for approval and gratitude. You will have to act more confidently and demand, for example, the remuneration commensurate to your work and the responsibilities you assume.

Sun Conjunct Saturn:

You are very serious, organized, demanding and a perfectionist. You like to have everything in its place and tend to be structured in your opinions. You are a person with strong principles; your word will be as good as gold and you will always keep your promises. Because you are serious and responsible, others will rely on you. You could excel in positions of authority and independence. This influence augurs well for success in the material world.

Aspects that affect your EMOTIONS:

Moon in 5th house:

You are likely to be very inventive and could excel in a career in teaching, sports or the theater. You have a great deal of charm and can get along well with people, especially children.

Moon Square Neptune:

You are very receptive to everything that happens around you and could easily assimilate negative energy when you are confronted with stressful situations. You tend to be fearful and try to escape situations that frighten you. If you don't acknowledge your own fears, you could be inclined to some type of vice or to work excessively.

You are very inspirational and have a natural ability for music. You also may be interested in mysterious and spiritual subjects.

Moon Sextile Venus:

You are likely to have many friendships and will be very popular with others. You can easily relate to others and show great sensitivity in your dealings, which lets you get along well with everyone and allows you to make friends easily. You also have good taste and are very interested in artistic subjects.

HIDDEN TALENTS: Aries on 12th house cusp

You have to learn to rely on your own initiative as well as your aggressiveness. You tend to repress many of your ideas or projects when you don't find the approval you expect from others. You also tend to think negatively about your aggressive side and because of this, are likely to repress it. It would be wise to seek a creative outlet through some physical or dynamic activity, otherwise the energy accumulated within you could make you sick later on.

This influence may lead you to some type of secret activity, to face violent enemies or to become exposed to dangerous situations.

***** Chapter 3 *******

Expansion (Jupiter) and retraction (Saturn).
To give and to receive.

EXPANSION: Jupiter in Libra

Your sense of expansion manifests through moderation and harmony. You like to advance in a progressive and gradual way. Since childhood you have learned to see beauty everywhere. You are elegant and delicate; your friendliness attracts others and makes you very popular. You have a strong sense of justice and always defend the rights of others, even when it is not requested. Your search for inner balance could lead to excesses and also make you indecisive at times. This influence is very favorable for any kind of association. Your material success depends on being in touch with the public.

Jupiter in 6th house:

You are lucky to be able to choose your jobs, as work is always available to you and usually pays well. You have good organizational ability and get along well with your fellow workers. This astrological configuration favors working in a subordinate position and also the relationship to personnel and co-workers. Your material expansion is directly related to the development of your sense of service; the more useful you feel, the more money you earn.

Jupiter Sextile Mars:

Thanks to your broad viewpoint you make a good leader. You are loyal, proud, liberal and self-confident. You are very protective of your friends and family and have a sound sense of justice. You are probably interested in sports, politics and travel. You are likely to have a steady income throughout your life and always live comfortably. Because you are secure in your own beliefs, you are a true idealist.

Jupiter Conjunct Saturn:

You are very disciplined and a bit rigid. Although life seems hard to you and with constant struggles, you have a clear and defined purpose of what you want to achieve. Poise and hard work are combined in your personality. You have business as well as political ability. You probably received orthodox religious training.

Your sense of expansion can be limited by your belief of hard reality. Try to develop thoughts that connect you with the abundance of the universe so that you can achieve your goals more easily and rapidly. Resignation to sacrifice and thoughts of struggle can be rooted deep inside you; from today on affirm that all you need comes to you without effort and at the right time.

Jupiter Conjunct Pluto:

You are dedicated to your ideals and goals and will be able to reach positions of leadership throughout your life. Your emotions and expressions are intense and somewhat exaggerated. Your great honesty and aggressiveness could bring about a certain degree of animosity. You will have to learn to moderate and to direct your strong creative dynamic force positively.

RETRACTION: Saturn in Libra

The inhibition principle affects your way of relating to others. You are very reserved and could have certain difficulties in your social life. Though you will have few friends, your friendships are likely to be lasting. You have a strong sense of justice and would make a very good attorney or judge. You are always very diplomatic, tactful and sensitive with your opinions. You need a lot of time to make a decision; although you seem to be subject to indecision, in the end you usually make the right decision. This astrological position can complicate, delay or frustrate any kind of association.

Saturn in 6th house:

You are efficient, careful and reliable and tend to worry about your job. You take everything seriously and sometimes feel that you are indispensable and push yourself at the cost of your health. Because of your great sense of responsibility, you don't enjoy life as much as others do. You are very demanding, and it isn't easy for you to find work that complies with all of your expectations. Disagreements with your bosses or co-workers are likely. Your principal frustration will be that of not finding work that makes you completely happy. You can't imagine working and enjoying yourself at the same time, and will always have complaints about people or the job you perform. Regardless, in some companies you may be given great recognition of your ability and occupational response.

Saturn Conjunct Sun:

You tend to judge others and yourself excessively. Your sense of perfection makes you inhibited and that stops you when you are not sure of doing something well. Your talents and natural ability are contained and you need to develop more self-confidence to reach success in life. You are very responsible and reliable, but also rigid and structured.

Saturn Sextile Mars:

You have the ability to direct your energies in an organized and disciplined way; you know when to run and when to stay. Your constructive energy allows you to excel in military or engineering fields. You are noble, sincere and respectful of other people's rights. You look out for your family and friends, and are very loyal in your feelings.

Success in life depends to a great extent on the balance between giving and receiving, expanding and retracting. Even dwelling on the one and only failure you may have had is like not attempting anything.

***** Chapter 4 *******
Finances, source of income.
Work in relation to your employment.

Described below are some possible sources of income. They may coincide, or not relate at all to your professional vocation.

FINANCES: Gemini on 2nd house cusp

You may hold two jobs at once and could make money through purchasing or sales, short distance traveling, or by some means of communication. Throughout your life you may change jobs several times because you are unable to find the harmonious climate you seek or because you become bored with what you are doing. The versatility in your material world will bring the possibility of numerous sources of revenue, if you know how to handle them properly; otherwise you may experience countless fluctuations and more than once resort to financial help from brothers and sisters or other close relatives.

In any case, the utilization of your intelligence, communication, wit and original ideas will be the key to making money.

Ruler of 2nd house in 6th house:

Your income is related to fields of sanitation, diets, health, hygiene, nursing, or occupying a subordinate position and organization in important companies, or in a completely different area such as domestic animal care.

Earning money is in direct relationship to our self-esteem. If we consider ourselves valuable, money flows and comes into our lives. Work done with love and pleasure doesn't weigh us down and offers a better profit.

WORK IN RELATION TO YOUR EMPLOYMENT: Libra on 6th house cusp

Your work in relationship to your employment will be expressed by your sociableness and sense of aesthetics. Your presence will help to solve problems with calmness and harmony. If there are no other challenging astrological aspects, you will be in demand by your co-workers and receive many favors thanks to your sociableness. If your work brings you in touch with the public, you will be able to show your ease in relating and communicating and will find great pleasure in your work. In commercial enterprises you will be the one who serves, accompanies or solves, but not the one that leads.

Sun in 6th house:

You take pride in your achievements and tend to stand out in your occupational position. You project by your personal ability and by the energy you put into your work. In general, you would like to have your own business and be independent, but you may have a certain complex or inhibitions that cause you to feel more comfortable working for an important company. This placement promises higher positions in your work. If you don't obtain one, a natural authority between your co-workers could bring some problems.

Mercury in 6th house:

You are contented if your work place stimulates your ideas, imagination and communication, especially jobs related to publication or means of information. You need to express your thoughts and like to feel that you are in a place where you can continue to learn and grow intellectually. This placement favors communication with your co-workers and superiors in general.

Jupiter in 6th house:

You are enthusiastic, optimistic and happy in your work place. You need to feel that your work will permit you to grow and to expand financially as well as intellectually, otherwise you will look for another job. Because of your positive and happy attitude, you are very popular among your co-workers and bosses. You have a tendency to bite off more than you can chew, so try to avoid involving yourself with jobs that are beyond your ability.

Saturn in 6th house:

You are very responsible and confident in your work. Your superiors as well as your co-workers will completely rely on you. You have ability to organize, direct others and you comply with the tasks that are entrusted to you. In spite of being very efficient, you never seem to be completely happy with the position you occupy, because you have an inner feeling that you could accomplish more. You may become frustrated waiting for recognition. You have to increase the confidence in yourself and demand the remuneration you deserve according to the responsibilities you assume.

Pluto in 6th house:

You have a lot of energy, enthusiasm and ability to face any problems in your work area. You have leadership ability and may have a position of authority. You tend to impose your ideas on others and achieve your objectives through manipulation. This placement can generate strong rivalries or fights with superiors or co-workers. Avoid violence and learn to work with more patience and flexibility.

***** Chapter 5 *******

Your creativity and recreational activities. Other skills and hobbies.

Hobbies are also part of our personality and through them, we express to a great extent our creative ability. It is important to enjoy our leisure activities and to complement them with our work or profession to reach greater balance. In our culture, we tend to place importance only on that which brings us money, thereby neglecting the expression of important parts of our personality.

YOUR CREATIVITY: Virgo on 5th house cusp

Your favorite recreational activities will be those that stimulate your intellect. You like to read, study, learn and teach. You also enjoy leisure activities that have to do with earth, such as gardening, agriculture and mountain-climbing etc. or with the breeding of domestic animals, especially with training them. You are likely to prefer a peaceful sport rather than a competitive one. Your creativity is stimulated by the contact of nature and living beings. You are at peace with yourself when you are in open spaces. You are also handy with practical activities such as repairing appliances in your household.

Moon in 5th house:

Some of your pastimes could be: cooking, decorating, collecting photographs or antiques of historical or family value, folk dancing, acting, singing, planting, cultivating, breeding animals, designing clothes or silver jewelry, inventing new meals, caring for children etc.

***** Chapter 6 *******
Your vocation, profession, probability of success and social recognition.

Aquarius MC

Your destiny is linked to the New Age of Aquarius. Your thoughts and ideas are very unusual and will help to change the world. Regardless of what profession you choose, your style will be very original and your ideas may be criticized for being non-traditional. You are interested in future-oriented inventions: space voyages, electronics, communication systems, etc. Your creativity allows you to excel in any artistic career you choose. If you have a tendency to write, it would probably be science fiction. You will travel a lot and feel fulfilled in places far away from your birthplace. Your powerful intuition will guide you to the success you are looking for. You can't tolerate working for others; you are extremely independent and will not submit to a timetable or a routine. If your job becomes restrictive, you will find another.

Your career choice could be one of the following professions: electronics, space engineer, aviation, computers, artist, writer, musician, singer, composer, astrologer, metaphysician, inventor, or any other creative profession which does not bear a specific label.
