The House of Or - El Astrology

Introduction to Senior Report:

On the following page begins the interpretation of your birth chart. This interpretation focuses on issues and concerns that people have in their later years. We tend to respond to astrological influences a bit different as we get older. With time we gain wisdom, moderation, and constancy that helps us handle astrological influences differently from the way we did as teenagers and young adults. This report takes this into account. Also, although many of our basic concerns are the same throughout our entire lives, there are also concerns and situations that we are more likely to encounter in different stages in life. This report focuses on the issues that are most likely to interest you. Hopefully, this astrological analysis will encourage you to pursue the activities and interests that will help you follow a path that will be the most fulfilling and meaningful one for you.

Ascendant in Libra:

Librans are indeed, the peacemakers and diplomats of the zodiac. Librans are the epitome of the most positive expressions of respect, integrity, honor and real justice. Libra's are not afraid to get involved in life; in fact you relish a good challenge. Your objective, in all that you take on in life, is to bring yourself closer to a true state of balance and calm. It can truly be said that you are a lover, not a fighter. Although, when the "flight or fright" syndrome arises, you can battle it through with the best of them. In your youth, are likely to have had to process through shyness, lack of confidence or some issues regarding your purpose and mission in this life. Ever willing to support others, especially your loved ones, you may have had to work hard at maintaining your own identity and life direction. You work well with others and innately feel drawn to looking for your perfect partner in life. You are adept at diplomacy, compromise, cooperation and the skills of negotiation. Your motto could well be, "Harm no one." You are diligent in trying to practice what you preach and appreciate those who allow you to live your life without fetters or criticism.

There is often a special beauty that radiates from within. Libra natives are often highly conscious of their looks and appearance, always wanting to present their best side to those they come in contact with every day. For many, this inner beauty shines brightest from mid to later years. Your self-confidence will be such that your strength and calm converts to a sense of inner well-being. You are able to convey this in your conversations and daily involvement with others. When it is time to retire, unless other parts of your horoscope indicate otherwise, you will be ready to stop work and enjoy all that retirement has to offer. You believe in loyalty and fidelity where marriage is concerned. You make a steady, loyal and loving mate and you subconsciously expect the same from your special someone. Your parenting skills are also loving and supportive, but you are not one to hang on too tightly. You believe that life is a process of growth and development and tend to try to let that growth happen naturally. In your leisure years, you will want to spend more time enjoying life's little luxuries including your favorite pieces of music, art and entertainment. Travel can be fun, but only if well planned and thought out far in advance. You don't like surprises that make you feel unprepared. You may take the time to remodel or redecorate your living quarters, given you may not have had the time or the finances earlier in life, to create a home that met your aesthetic needs.

Sun in Capricorn and in 4th house:

You are serious in your demeanor, with a Capricorn Sun sign, even if there are other planetary indications. Saturn always finds a way to express itself. The vitality that comes with a Saturn ruled Sun sign gives you strength, patience and fortitude. You are able to set long-range goals and accomplish them accordingly. You are ambitious, yet dependable. Home and family are important to, although, you may look at your actual habitat and property as an investment, rather than an environment during the early years of your adulthood. As life progresses, you will become more interested in making your home a haven of comfort, love and family life. You are careful about taking good care of the things you own and will likely have investments in the form of art, music or collectibles in your home. You enjoy family gatherings, especially in your middle to later years when you are more willing to take time to enjoy your loved ones. Your greatest lesson to learn with this house position is that your home is not just an investment, but a sacred place for you and your loved ones to gather, enjoy and support one another. Your message to the Universe will be that of family unity and creating a sacred space where family can be honored.

Sun Conjoint Mercury:

You have the ability to express yourself well, not just one on one, but to the public and groups of people. You can be quite influential later in life and will enjoy short journeys and travel.

Sun Conjunct Node T.:

This aspect will often bring prosperity, and sometimes wealth, as one approaches maturity. You will aspire to great heights if you learn the lessons of your past and present. Learn the art of forgiveness.

Sun Opposition MC:

You are likely to find it difficult to keep up with your domestic and professional responsibilities. In youth, as you endeavor to build a solid career, your family may suffer. Likewise, when you turn your attentions toward your domestic scene, your career could suffer. The easiest solution might be to consider self-employment or work that can be done in the home. With maturity, you will become adept at balancing your daily duties and life will become more fulfilling.

Sun opposition South Node:

You can be over-protective of those you love and care about the most. You can even be overly protective of yourself. If it's too hard, you can pass a project on to someone else. This aspect encourages you to break these habits by mid-life. In so doing, you will find you have greater personal freedom and will experience more joy in your daily life.

Sun Square Asc.:

You will probably want to steer clear of dogmatic attitudes. Otherwise, you are likely to fail before you even begin a project. Give yourself the best possible circumstances for success in all you desire to accomplish.

Moon in Aquarius and in 5th house:

The Moon is the reflection of the soul, in a manner of speaking. The Moon is the seat of the emotions and is one of the main reasons the earth school was created...so that humankind could learn all of the lessons the emotions have to teach. The Moon is a barometer, of sorts, and measures what we have assimilated in spiritualized lunar energies. It also measures what our "target" areas are...that is, what areas in life we need to process through via our feelings and emotional expression. Any negative behaviors that are based in the emotions, that we brought with us into this lifetime will be given ample time and due course, to be processed and elevated into a higher expression.

The fifth house is such a creative location for the Moon in Aquarius. Herein there is much room for positive expression, for creative outlets and for great accomplishments. The Moon in Aquarius often has an artistic talent, such as voice, music, dance, theatre, sculpture, painting and the like. At some point, you could even turn your talent into a flourishing and prosperous career. No matter what your specific talent, you are one who respects tradition, but who prefers the non-traditional. In many ways, you are ahead of your time. You do things in your own unique way and in so doing, gather much attention, most of it, positive. Romance is interesting to you, but you prefer developing a friendship first, with the object of your affection. You are better able to avoid the "fluff" of a relationship, preferring to stay detached until you are sure about your feelings. You are probably dedicated to recycling, protecting the environment and experiencing the beauty and wonder of nature. Pursuits in outdoor recreation and some kind of sports will bring much pleasure, especially in your mid to later years. More time will be spent with your talent than, too.

Moon Trine Asc.:

Family relationships are very important to you. Your desire for love, security and a harmonious home life will be one of your primary motivations throughout this life. While you may be drawn to a service oriented career in youth, your later years could find you dabbling with business, finance and real estate investments.

Moon Quincunx MC:

Out of necessity or the urging of a parent, guardian or family elder, you may be forced into a career that does not suit you. It is likely you will have more than one vocation in this life. With age and experience, you will find your own will power and express it appropriately. Put your childhood into proper perspective.

Mercury in Capricorn and in 4th house:

From Mercury, you learn how to communicate with the world around you. You discover your mental aptitude and find ways to utilize your abilities in logic and reasoning. Mercury teaches you about life through some travel, personal studies and the use of perception. With Mercury in the fourth house, your focus will be on family, stabilizing your financial base, promoting intellectual matters and studies and turning real estate interests into a sizeable financial return and investment potential. Your idea of retirement does not include sitting around and doing nothing. You are likely to have an agenda and will work toward a new set of goals in your later life. Family will always play an important role in your life.

Mercury Conjunct Node T.:

Open yourself up to what is new, adventurous and progressive. You are not one to sit on the fence. Involvement is your middle name. Let others know what you are thinking. You benefit from shared knowledge.

Mercury Opposition MC:

Matters involving your family, home environment or domestic obligations can, at times, interfere with your job or career responsibilities. You may find that self-employment or working at home is an easy and satisfactory solution. In youth, you may not have experienced the quality of communication with your dominant parent that you would have liked. With maturity and parenthood yourself, however, you can make a real difference with your own offspring. Writing, reading, teleprocessing, computers and personal studies will become more important as you approach your middle years.

Mercury opposition South Node:

Others may find that you are too critical in your attitude and judgmental in your demands. Your early life may have found you to be the product of overly critical parents or guardians. The imprint was probably harsh, unsettling and affected your sense of self-worth and self-esteem. As you grow in years, this experience can actually be used as a tool to refine your talents and desires. You will need, however, to get a positive self-image and to learn not to take life so seriously. With age and maturity, though probably somewhat conservative, you will be more open to new ideas, thoughts and trends. You may even make some significant lifestyle changes during your middle years, that will allow you to express more joy and pleasure in living.

Mercury Square Asc.:

Throughout life, you will need to constantly improve and upgrade your personal communication skills. As you grow in maturity, you will become more and more adept at organizing, clarifying and ordering your personal and business affairs.

Venus in Scorpio and in 2nd house:

The sign and placement of Venus will give you insight into your feelings and emotional leaning. Venus helps you to discover your attitudes about music, art, culture, theatre and all forms of creativity and beauty. Venus links you to love, romance and altruism. Venus in Scorpio makes you almost vigilant about taking good care of your family and loved ones. You are likely to be a good provider, whether a man or woman, and will work to bring about your family's dreams and wishes. You are a careful spender and will look for bargains. You may even clip coupons, or return something you purchased if you find a better price elsewhere. If you really want something, or learn a loved one wants something, you do all you can to bring it about.

Venus Conjunct Saturn:

While you are somewhat reserved, you are not wholly conservative in your outlook. Social prestige and career advancement are important issues for you, especially as you approach your mid-life years.

Venus Square Pluto:

There is a danger of becoming narcissistic with age. If you develop a genuine consideration for the feelings and needs of others, however, your mid to later life relationships will be more fulfilling and comforting. Practice nurturing those you care about the most. Build your feelings of self-worth and self-esteem.

Venus Trine Jupiter:

Generally speaking, you are considered to be a happy person, empathetic in nature and optimistic in outlook. You enjoy activities involving family and friends, and are a fabulous host when entertaining in your home. You enjoy being a part of groups and always have something worthwhile to contribute. In youth, others may try to take advantage of your easygoing nature, but with maturity, you become adept at picking and choosing your associates. Business dealings are favored.

Venus Trine Uranus:

You have an entirely unique perspective on art, music, culture, philosophy, creative expression and the world, in general. You enjoy social functions and close personal relationships provided your personal freedom is not impaired. In later years, you will have a good head for business because of the unusual approach you bring to these endeavors.

Mars in Pisces and in 6th house:

The Pisces influence gives Mars more of a peaceful nature and one much less aggressive. Mars in Pisces is often energized by what is hidden, subconscious or sentimental. These natives often give service to others and understand emotional factors. While in youth, you may have been reckless with your health care needs, but with age, you will become better. You need to serve others will take more than one form, but will be sustaining to your spirit.

Mars Trine Saturn:

If you will learn to schedule your time and activities, you will be able to conserve your energy and still have time for family, pleasure and recreation. In youth, you tend to be a workaholic. With age and maturity, however, you learn the value of picking and choosing your activities carefully. Rewards come when they are earned. You can't force anything to happen until the timing is right.

Jupiter in Cancer and in 10th house:

Jupiter's sign and house placements give you hope and optimism in life. Jupiter shows you the potential for your greatest rewards and benefits, and gives you a chance to speak your own truth to the world.

Your talents for nurturing, understanding, commiseration, empathy and intuition will strongly influence your career choice in life. You may even have more than one career, perhaps taking a slightly different direction during the second half of life. You could work with the public well, as you are a good listener and can stay detached enough to get right to the heart of any matter. Your ability to discern could also make you management or administrative material. If you so desire, you could even begin your own business or operate a business from your home, in your mid to later years. Although you enjoy your career and opportunities that come with it, you will be oriented to your home and family as the prime anchor to your life. Beyond the nurturing of your gifts, talents and desires, in life, you will be lead to the possibilities that come with the nurturing of the soul. Your spiritual growth comes from understanding the human condition.

Jupiter Conjunct Uranus:

You will probably find with age, that you gain in tolerance and understanding. You will nearly always be open to other beliefs, philosophies and viewpoints, however. You learn through observation.

Jupiter Square Neptune:

In youth, due to your family upbringing, you are likely to start life with a full head of steam, but with highly unrealistic expectations. Time, failure and re-educating yourself to real possibilities, will bring positive results to many mid-life projects.

Saturn in Scorpio and in 2nd house:

Your greatest lessons in life will involve Saturn's sign and house placements. Saturn as teacher makes you astute and blessed with business acumen when it comes to your personal finances, investments and real estate dealings. You have a tremendous will power and once you set your sights on a financial goal, will not swerve from it, until it is completed. This makes you an excellent provider and lends itself to a comfortable, if not wholly prosperous life. Security comes first, where your loved ones and family are concerned.

Uranus in Cancer and in 10th house:

Uranus is the planet of the higher mind, the super consciousness, and represents the attunement we can make with the divinity that exists within us all. Uranus, it has been said, never takes anything away from us without giving back something far better. False beliefs fall. Truth replaces the falsehood.

The tenth house Uranus in Cancer is likely to feel as strongly drawn to a career outside of the home, as to creating a strong home and family base of operations. You may even find that in your middle to later years, you will start your own home business or a small business that would allow you to spend more time at home with your loved ones. With time and life experience you could well become interested in a more mystical approach to life in your retirement years.

Uranus Square Neptune:

You would do well to take great care when involving yourself with the occult or psychic practices of any kind. You can sometimes be too vulnerable to things that can easily get out of your control. If you must study these, enroll in a credible class.

Neptune in Libra and in 1st house:

Neptune governs your basic beliefs on a spiritual level. Your inner world, subconscious expressions, psychic intuition and creative visualizations all come under rulership of Neptune. Your role in the upliftment of the planet is divulged in the lessons Neptune instills. Neptune keeps your secrets and reveals your fears. Neptune helps you uncover your hidden beliefs; especially those that hold you back spiritually, and keep you from living a fulfilling and joy-filled life. With Neptune in Libra, and in your first house, you are likely to appear to others as physically beautiful, alluring and mysterious all at the same time. If you are developed, on a spiritual level, your inner beauty is also likely to shine through in a notable way. You make an excellent listener, as you are genuinely interested in others. You may even find yourself in the position of counselor or advisor, whether professionally or otherwise. You are a natural diplomat and will always be found working toward peace, harmony and balance in all life situations. You are likely to be intuitive, as well.

Neptune Sextile Pluto:

Advancement will be forward moving, but slow, if you choose a materialistic approach to life and living. If you grasp, early in life, the spiritual significance of life, you will progress faster.

Pluto in Leo and in 11th house:

The sign in which Pluto is placed is a generational influence. The house placement tells how it will affect you. Pluto in Leo alters the perception of love, romance and children. Leadership skills often arise in whatever house Pluto appears. Your relationship with your children is likely to turn into a friendship in later years, making communication easy, creative and stimulating. Friends also include you in activities outside the home. Sports and recreation are good avenues of creative expression.

Jupiter is Retrograde:

Jupiter represents expansion, the true quality of expression, and authoritative judgment. Jupiter allows you to see beyond what is deemed "real" in our earthly existence. It is a visionary planet that lets the human soul branch out far beyond its limited scope. This is a planet of hope, faith and inspiration. Jupiter envelopes cosmic law, universal principles and spiritual destiny. It gives flight to the soul and then reconnects it to the body, so that practical applications can be made in the present lifetime. The key to Jupiter's influence over your life as you begin to mature, is that you are better able to apply Jupiter's learned knowledge to your affairs in a way that sets you free and expands your awareness of what is possible for you to attain at any given moment. A retrograde Jupiter tells of a soul who was either held back and fairly limited in his past life, or who held others back, disallowing for their growth and evolution. In this life, a retrograde Jupiter makes you work for what you want. You still have the qualities of belief, foresight and faith, but nothing will be handed to you on a silver platter. If you were born into riches and prosperity, you will be forced to learn the lessons of value and integrity. If you don't, you could lose everything and have to start over, perhaps more than once. Jupiter's influence is often attached to the word "Karma" and will show us what it is that we must grow beyond, where we must expand our consciousness. Jupiter retrograde teaches us the value of utilizing our talents and abilities to their fullest. We learn to survive, to overcome and to give unselfishly, when called upon to be of service to humanity. We learn to give to ourselves as well.

Uranus is Retrograde:

The planet Uranus is a higher octave planet, and one with the important role of ushering in the new Aquarian Age for this planetary life wave. It represents the higher mind and its ability to access that which is unseen, all-knowing and ever active through the principles of universal law and order. While Jupiter offers the opportunity for higher education, Uranus is the ingredient which takes that knowledge, assimilates it, shares it with humanity and then formulates higher degrees of knowledge. Uranus as the higher mind, is that part of our thinking nature which aspires, inspires and uplifts. Spiritually speaking, for the new Aquarian Age that we are now ushering in, Uranus represents the new, higher octave Christ principle, and in this sense, Uranus symbolizes the Aquarian Age teacher in his or her highest degree. Uranus in retrogradation, sometimes misses opportunities that come too soon and unexpectedly in life. This position of Uranus will often, better benefit from these opportunities with maturity or age. You are someone, to whom, life occasionally offers a "second chance".

While you are also someone who wishes to reach out and help the betterment of humanity in general, you will find yourself embroiled in more personal, one on one issues that must be resolved before you can experience the luxury of philanthropic endeavors. You are not a typical student where standardized education is concerned.

You may even be considered a revolutionary or rebel in some matters. You tend to do better by choosing your own studies and by learning them on your own terms. You can expect unexpected gains, but if you are irresponsible, loss will come as well. You will be rewarded for diligence, real effort and by not giving up.

Pluto is Retrograde:

Pluto's role as official caretaker of group and individual Karma, is often expressed on the more subtler levels of human and earthly experience. It takes time for Pluto to make it's influence felt, but it's influence is always an effort to initiate a needed change or transformation. The key to Pluto's retrogradation is transformation. Once you have accepted the inevitable, you are likely to find that you wish you'd given way to the change much sooner. Pluto vibrates to a higher octave and is considered, by many, to be the higher expression of Mars. Pluto, in days gone by, was sometimes referred to as the "Destroyer". In reality, however, Pluto tears down what is old, outmoded, outdated or worn out, and replaces in it's stead, something new, unique, serviceable and better than before. Remember that Karma does not always imply negativity. Rather, it implies that any good you have earned, will also be awarded. With a retrograde Pluto, you can expect that anything held in abeyance in your past life or early childhood in this life, will be released to you in full measure as you enter your mature years. Pluto forces the soul to grow up and to accept responsibility for it's actions. Pluto holds the individual and groups of individuals, accountable for their every deed. Pluto admires and reveres the art and act of self-discipline. It demands loyalty and it rewards hard work. Pluto retrograde, will give you the opportunity to right the wrongs of your past, in this life or from other lives, and it allows you to build a firm foundation for both the present and the future. With age and maturity, come attainment, achievement and lasting rewards. Don't take any shortcuts.

Take time for regeneration. Develop inner joy and an excitement about what you will accomplish in this life. Move forward.
